More Dino-themed Activities

CITY-WIDE DINO HUNT

Can you find the dino tracks around Grapevine? Follow prehistoric footprints at local shops and businesses and become a Dinosaur Hunter!

GRAPEVINE VINTAGE RAILROAD (GVR)

705 S. Main St.

Dinos on the Tracks is rolling through Grapevine this Summer! In June and July, ride the historic train for a dino-mite experience. Enjoy pop-up exhibits from the Perot Museum and watch a special dinosaur show on board! Train excursions happen Thursday – Saturday, with extra dino surprises along the way.

HOLDER DANE GALLERY & ART STUDIOS

701 S. Main St., #100

Stop by Holder Dane Gallery and visit Artie the Garden Dinosaur. Kids can draw on the eight foot dinosaur chalk mural and take part in a Dino art “draw your own story.” In your story you will create and name a friend for Artie!

GRAPEVINE OBSERVATION TOWER

815 S. Main St.

Step into the past and see where dinosaurs once roamed from high above the Grapevine Observation Tower! Enjoy daily dinosaur talks and tours for just $3 per ticket, with fascinating stories about prehistoric creatures near the airport and lake. Kids can snap a dino-tastic photo, win stickers and play dinosaur games. Plus, don't miss the fun dino gift bubbles!

PEACE PLAZA

815 S. Main St.

Let your creativity roar with dino shadow drawing at Peace Plaza! Watch as the sun helps you trace larger-than-life dinosaur shapes — perfect for little artists and future paleontologists.

VISITOR INFORMATION CENTER

GIFT SHOPS 815 S. Main St., 636 S. Main St.

Dino lovers can take home their favorite souvenirs from the Visitor Center Gift Shops! Grab a cool dino-themed t-shirt, safari hats and other prehistoric treasures to remember your adventure.

SETTLEMENT TO CITY MUSEUMS

206 W. Hudgins St.

Explore dino history at the Museums every Friday, Saturday and Sunday! Kids can create their own dinosaur block prints on an old-fashioned printing press and enjoy a brand-new dino photo op outside.

GRAPEVINE HISTORICAL MUSEUM

206 W. Hudgins St.

See a real Grapevine dinosaur track inside the Grapevine Historic Museum's Ice House exhibit!

GRAPEVINE PUBLIC LIBRARY

1201 Municipal Way

Dig into Paleontology at the Grapevine Public Library! Learn about fossils, ancient creatures, and ecosystems from real-life paleontologists. Hands-on activities and games will bring the world of dinosaurs to life. Keep an eye on the Library's online calendar for details.

NASH FARM

626 S. Ball St.

Dig into adventure at Nash Farm! Try your hand at a dino dig garden, play classic board games and learn about the real-life “Bone Wars” in a special Lunch N Learn with Murray Cohen, local dinosaur expert.

CITY HALL

200 S. Main St.

Visit City Hall and check out incredible dinosaur bones and fossils on display in the lobby.

DINOSAUR ALLEY

200 – 300 S. Main St.

Take a stroll through and spot pterosaurs flying above! Search for dinos on the Palace Theatre windows.

LIBERTY PARK PLAZA

215 S. Main St.

Climb into a Dinosaur Jeep Photo Op at Liberty Park! Snap a picture while you imagine yourself on a prehistoric safari!

PALACE ARTS CENTER

300 S. Main St.

Dino lovers, get ready for Dino Cartoons & Crafts! Every Thursday at 10 a.m. from June 5 – July 31, enjoy a morning of dino-themed cartoons and crafts in the Lancaster Theatre. The $10 kid's ticket includes a souvenir cup and a fun dino mask; adult tickets are $4. Plus, catch a special dino-themed movie at the Palace Theatre, including a Friday Night feature.

PARKS & RECREATION - DINO TRAIL

Embark on a dinosaur adventure along C. Shane Wilbanks and Wall-Farrar Trails. Look for prehistoric findings and learn about Grapevine's prehistoric past.

HOUSE OF SHINE

334 S. Barton St.

Unearth your shine, like a paleontologist who digs for fossils to learn the history of dinosaurs; you can “dig” to learn a deeper understanding of who you are and why your contributions to the world matter. Enjoy interactive activities like dinosaur egg painting, discovering your dino-like senses and taking a picture with our dino-themed photo op. Also, take a piece of House of Shine home with their limited edition dinosaur footprint Shine tokens.
