

AN OASIS
OF LUXURY

GREATER PALM SPRINGS

find your oasis

In its earliest days, Old Hollywood discovered the luxury retreats that only Greater Palm Springs could inspire. From palm tree-laced landscapes drenched in citrus to sparkling pools, the scene was set for extravagant relaxation and recreation.

FIVE-STAR RESORTS, EXCLUSIVE BOUTIQUES AND ESTATE RENTALS

Today, luxury accommodations await to meet a variety of stay indulgences, from world-class pedigreed resorts and trendy boutique hideaways to the very homes once occupied by celebrity royalty. First-class service and amenities are a given, from extravagant spas and chef-inspired dining to private butler service.

In this resort oasis, chilling is a way of life. Think mornings soaking up the sun poolside, siestas after lunch and, of course, experiencing the destination's indulgent spas that ensure the chilling lingers on.

INDULGE IN SPA DAYS, YOUR WAY

Select creative treatments imbued with local botanicals—from dates to lemons— that refresh, heal and pamper at copious full-service luxury resort spas. Or soak under the stars in a luxurious grotto pool of hot, healing mineral water that bubbles up directly from an ancient underwater aquifer. Enjoy an intimate spa suite for two, paired with champagne and pure bliss.

INSPIRED DESIGNS, RIGHT FROM THE RUNWAY

Poised perfectly at the intersection of cutting edge fashion and designer inspiration, the oasis is a shopper's paradise. Almost every leading design house has a home here, from Trina Turk to Tiffany. Every spring, Fashion Week El Paseo brings the runways that rule internationally, as well as VIP-only events and celebrity designer trunk shows during the West Coast's largest fashion event. Shoppers choose from the art-lined streets of El Paseo, the oasis' own "Rodeo Drive," to kicky vintage shops and the hundreds of brand-name stores that fill the nearby outlets.

SAVOR DINING AT ITS FINEST

Greater Palm Springs is a famous haven for celebrities of all kinds – from the entertainment and music industries to world leaders. This celebrity status also extends to some of the culinary industry’s most renowned restaurants, such as Nobu, which recently became a permanent fixture at the Indian Wells Tennis Garden.

Foodies can even dine at eight Michelin-recommended restaurants, including 4 Saints (set on the seventh-floor rooftop of the Kimpton Rowan Palm Springs). Whether savoring the flavors of the abundant local bounty in a chic bistro or on a candlelit fine dining patio, the culinary experience is always memorable. Each spring, the Food + Wine Festival Palm Desert highlights the best of this culinary oasis with live cooking demonstrations from some of the country’s most celebrated chefs, wine seminars and Grand Tastings from premium restaurants, wineries and purveyors of spirits.

PALM DESERT FOOD & WINE

AWARD-WINNING ARTS

Greater Palm Springs is known as a major mecca for the arts. Every January, people trek from near and far to experience the world renowned Palm Springs International Film Festival—studded with stars and hinting at Oscar favorites. This is your chance to experience the celebrity lifestyle as you walk the red carpet along with a flurry of A-listers attending the festival's Awards Gala, undoubtedly one of the most extravagant events of the year. Greater Palm Springs is also home to some of the nation's top-rated events for the arts, including the renowned La Quinta Arts Festival, held every spring.

EXCLUSIVE RACETRACKS. SLEEK POLO PONIES. LIMITLESS THRILLS.

An afternoon of indulgence is best spent outdoors. At the exclusive Thermal Club, a private motorsports facility, members come to play with their favorite toys: Ferraris, Porsches and Lamborghinis being just a few of the supercars you'll see hitting triple-digit speeds here. Even if you left your own McLaren back home, you can still experience these exclusive racetracks. Simply sign up for a class at the BMW Performance Center West Driving School, located at The Thermal Club. With an M Series BMW at your fingertips, you'll perfect the art of drifting, cornering and downshifting like a pro. Or set your sights on the polo greens in the winter and spring, when ponies and riders race across the fields during these thrilling matches. For a more chill equestrian experience, try a guided horseback ride through lush palm groves and fantastic rock formations in the Indian Canyons, the ancestral home of the Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians.

MIDCENTURY MODERN, REFINED

Never question the destination's status as the hot spot for all things modern and fabulous. Whether you're a disciple of midcentury modern design and architecture or simply seeking new cultural experiences, you have found the epicenter of the nation's most significant architectural treasure trove created by acclaimed artists, architects and designers. Take a tour of the modernist homes, take home masterpieces of the era or attend Modernism Week each winter for a 10-day celebration of all things modernism, from retro-cocktail parties by the pool to private home tours.

A BACKSTAGE PASS TO THE MUSIC

Experience music history in the making during the Coachella Valley Music & Arts Festival and Stagecoach Country Music Festival, two world-class music festivals at the Empire Polo Club. The allure of their extraordinary lineups is undeniable, as are the surprising interactive exhibits and larger-than-life art installations. During Coachella, retreat to the Rose Garden to sip on craft cocktails or take a seat under the sunset as a renowned chef prepares a gourmet culinary experience. Nothing elevates these two festivals quite like staying in a Shikar-style tent, lavish yurt or exclusive estate, all fully furnished with detailed amenities and decadent indulgences—and merely steps from the music.

JOSHUA TREE NATIONAL PARK

The extraordinary landscape of world-famous Joshua Tree National Park is less than an hour's drive from Greater Palm Springs. Park adventures include incredible hiking trails, rock climbing, stargazing, camping, guided walks, evening programs, and special events.

After exploring the park, check out the eclectic restaurants and antique shops that line the main drag of this laidback town. While heading back to Greater Palm Springs, stop by the Old West movie set of Pioneertown and dine at one of the region's favorite watering holes: Pappy & Harriet's Pioneertown Palace. A younger crowd tends to flock to this western saloon and barbecue joint thanks to its rustic, free spirit vibes and ongoing lineup of live music that's featured the likes of Paul McCartney, Robert Plant, Arctic Monkeys, Billy Corgan, Lucinda Williams, Neko Case, Eagles of Death Metal, and many more.
