FREE THINGS TO DO IN DOWNTOWN GREENVILLE

GREENVILLE
—SOUTH CAROLINA—

FALLS PARK ON THE REEDY & LIBERTY BRIDGE

Visit the “crown jewel” of Downtown Greenville and gaze at Reedy River Falls from atop the Liberty Bridge, the only single-suspension bridge of its kind in the Western Hemisphere. Falls Park was also recently voted “Greenville’s Most Iconic Landmark!”

Low-Cost Level-Up: Grab an ice cream cone from Spill the Beans, adjacent to the Main Street entrance to the park, and enjoy sitting in the grass in one of the many open green spaces throughout the 32-acre park.

PRISMA HEALTH SWAMP RABBIT TRAIL SYSTEM

Frequently named one of the best urban trails in the country, the Swamp Rabbit Trail extends 28 miles and connects Downtown Greenville to the city of Travelers Rest and beyond. Favorite stops along the trail include Cleveland Park, Cancer Survivors Park, Falls Park on the Reedy, RiverPlace, Unity Park, and downtown Travelers Rest.

Low-Cost Level-Up: Rent bikes from several local shops like Reedy Rides or Pedego Electric Bikes to cycle the trail.

ART IN PUBLIC PLACES SELF-GUIDED TOUR

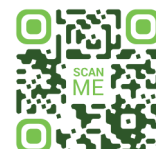

Art enthusiasts and casual art lovers alike will love strolling the streets of Greenville. The City of Greenville has a handy interactive online map of the public art locations (access map at QR code). Some notable works you might see include “Rose Crystal Tower” by Dale Chihuly and Yuri Tsuzuki’s “Transformation,” which includes hundreds of steel butterflies placed throughout Downtown Greenville.

Low-Cost Level-Up: While out exploring the city, you’ll notice tons of unique shops and boutiques to visit along the way. Stop in at Mast General Store and have a nostalgic candy treat from their many barrels of vintage-style candies.

DOWNTOWN TROLLEY

Rest your feet and enjoy the ride! Greenville’s delightful red and blue trolleys motor up and down Main Street to carry passengers to many Downtown destinations. Download the FindGreenlink App to track the real-time location of the trolley and see the stops along the trolley route.

MICE ON MAIN SCAVENGER HUNT

The Mice on Main are 9 tiny bronze mice hidden along a section of Main Street for kids and kids-at-heart to discover. Inspired by the children's book Goodnight Moon, the mice were originally ideated as a local high-schooler's class project.

Low-Cost Level-Up: Pop into O.P. Taylor's toy store and grab a copy of the book, Mice on Main, written by local author Linda Kelly and illustrated by mice sculptor, Zan Wells, as an adorable reminder of your experience.

SELF-GUIDED WALKING TOURS

Want to experience what Greenville has to offer, but don't know where to start? Our interactive virtual walking tours are a perfect, stress-free way to see the city and learn about historic Downtown Greenville.

Low-Cost Level-Up: Along the way, visit local stores, restaurants, and attractions such as the Greenville Zoo that are included in the tours.

HERITAGE GREEN

At Heritage Green, head to the Greenville County Museum of Art and check out the world's largest collection of watercolors by Andrew Wyeth as well as a significant body of work by Jasper Johns. Be sure to visit the South Carolina Room at the Greenville County Hughes Main Library. Staffed by experienced genealogists and historians, the SC Room features an extensive collection of genealogy and local history materials.

Low-Cost Level-Up: The Signal Music Museum offers engaging exhibits, riveting musical performances, and a world class display of timeless instruments, which then will lead you to the GVL Theatre where you can enjoy numerous productions. Lastly, one can't miss the Upcountry History Museum, which displays South Carolina's remarkable history from the early 18th century all the way to the present.

After immersing yourself in the culture of the Upstate, stop by The Cook's Station which sits directly across the street. From a wide variety of high-end kitchenware, wine, and gifts to a sit-down menu and cooking classes, The Cook's Station has everything that one with a passion for food could imagine.
