UNEXPECTED CONTRASTS

THAT SURPRISE AND DELIGHT

There are plenty of reasons why we're seeing more and more people choose Greenville, SC as the new favorite host destination for meetings, conferences, conventions, and sporting events.

From a river and a waterfall that bring the beauty of nature to the very heart of our urban setting, to our Southern charm and an international food scene that contrast the surrounding mountain foothills – you owe it to yourself to take a closer look at Greenville, SC.

OUTDOOR ADVENTURES

FROM DOWNTOWN TO THE MOUNTAINTOPS

When our backyard is the Blue Ridge Mountains, you tend to spend a lot of time outdoors. With our four-season climate, it's easy to enjoy our beautiful natural attractions and recreational opportunities.

Bring along your golf clubs and play a course with breathtaking views, or pack your tennis shoes and enjoy countless walking, cycling, and hiking trails. You won't want to miss our 28-mile long Prisma Health Swamp Rabbit Trail System.

GLOBAL CUISINE

IT'S WHAT'S ON THE MENU

Recently named one of “America’s Next Great Food Cities” by Food & Wine and with 200+ restaurants in Downtown alone (over 1,000 throughout the destination), Greenville’s abundant and tasty culinary scene is garnering national attention. Indulge in international dishes from 34 countries spanning 5 continents. The hardest decision will be choosing where to eat your next meal.

EXTRAORDINARY EXPERIENCES

BEYOND THE ORDINARY

The lineup of unique Greenville experiences goes on forever. For those seeking thrills, visit the BMW Performance Center and put The Ultimate Driving Machine® to the test or catch a Minor League Greenville Drive baseball game at Fluor Field – a replica of Boston’s famous Fenway Park.

For more low-key activities, choose from sampling some of the Upstate’s finest microbrews on a craft brew tour or immersing yourself in the arts at any of greater Greenville’s outstanding theaters, museums, and galleries.
