STATE OF THE ARTS

Texans do things in a big way, especially when it comes to arts and culture. We're proud of our world-class offerings, such as the Dallas Museum of Art, Nasher Sculpture Center and Kimbell Art Museum, to name a few.

Live performances of symphonies, national tours, concerts, dance and opera can be found at the Morton Meyerson Symphony Center, Bass Performance Hall, Irving Arts Center and Winspear Opera House, as well as scores of other quality venues.

SHOPPING IS OUR BAG

There are more retail shopping centers per capita in the DFW Metroplex than any other city in the United States. Exclusive emporiums and designer district outlets are interwoven with multitudes of malls, local boutiques and a full spectrum of specialty shops. Many malls and shopping centers in the area offer group programs for extra savings and surprises.

FAMOUS FOR FOOD

A busy day can leave a visitor hungry (and thirsty). While we are most known for our famous Tex-Mex, Irving and the rest of the Metroplex also boast a diverse spate of restaurants – from national chains to local favorites – to tempt the taste buds.

Many restaurants are group-friendly, offering special menus, private rooms and other accommodations. Also, many often cater, bringing their unique taste to private events all over DFW.

BACKYARD ENTERTAINMENT

Toyota Music Factory is a world-class entertainment destination as diverse as the world of music itself. Centrally located in the heart of Irving, TMF is the soul of the Metroplex, bringing an energy that will satisfy any taste in food, music and movies.

Water Street is one of Irving's newest hot spots, featuring pathways to Lake Carolyn, fresh retail offerings and cool restaurants serving up dishes sure to satisfy even the most discerning palate.

Both places are within walking distance from the Irving Convention Center and the Westin Convention Hotel.
