

At Your Fingertips Guide:

Airports

DFW Airport is less than 7 miles west of the Convention Center. If desired you can use the DART train, with a station just across the street facing Northwest HWY, directly to Terminal B. Otherwise, it's an easy drive. Simply get on HWY 114 West and it will take you to the North entrance to the airport, and all Terminals and airlines are accessible on the main "spine" road, International Parkway.

Dallas Love Field is 10 miles east of the Convention Center. If desired you can use the DART train, with a station just across the street facing Northwest HWY, to the Inwood Station, where a shuttle bus will transport you to the Terminal Lobby. Or, you can take HWY 114 East, exit at Mockingbird and take a right, and then take a left into the airport just past Denton Drive (look for the signs).

The Mustangs of Las Colinas at Williams Square. 5221 N. O'Connor Drive, Irving. ¼ mile. These incredible statues amidst a fountain in the plaza of Williams Square are the City of Irving's official symbol. Easily walkable from the ICC—take Las Colinas Blvd. to the right, at O'Connor turn left, and they are directly ahead on your left. A magnificent series of bronze sculptures of Mustangs running, surrounded by a fountain. Truly a can't-miss visit! Admission is free. <http://mustangsoflascolinas.com/history/>

Mandalay Canal Walk. 215 Mandalay Canal, Irving. ½ mile. This is a beautiful walk along tree-lined sidewalks by a canal through the area with several shops and restaurants with outdoor seating to stop at and enjoy. Treat yourself to a gondola ride. Admission is free. <https://www.irvingtexas.com/listings/mandalay-canal-walk-at-las-colinas/700/>

Las Colinas Flower Clock. Southeast corner of HWY114 and North O'Connor, Irving. 1 mile. A beautiful and very large clock made out of flowers, with the floral selections updated seasonally. Great photo op location!

The Irving Arts center has a collection of permanent works, in particular the sculpture garden in the front of the museum, as well as travelling collections inside. Admission is free. It also houses a well-respected theatre company and the Irving Symphony, both of which offer a wide variety of productions. Check box office for offerings. 972-252-7558. <http://www.irvingartscenter.com/>

The Marble Cows. Riverside Drive at Hwy 114, Northeast corner. 1 ½ miles. If it seems Irving has a predilection for animal sculptures, you might be right. The Marble Cows of Irving are five wonderful sculptures of, you guessed it, cows, made of Spanish and Italian marble. Based on sketches of real cows that the artist observed in East Texas, these cows sit on a hill overlooking Las Colinas and are extremely family-friendly. Kids can climb all over Lucy, Margaret, Ruth, Elsa, and Annette—the names of the 5 cows—and then tumble down the grassy hill. Families enjoy picnicking in the sun during great Texas weather. Admission is free. <https://www.irvingtexas.com/things-to-do/distinctly-irving/marble-cow-sculptures/>

Downtown Irving Heritage District. Along Irving Blvd., just east of O'Conner. As one of the oldest cities in Dallas County, Irving is proud of our long history. Visit Heritage Park, including Heritage House built in 1912 and fill with original antiques donated by the Schultz family that built the house. While you're there stop into Big State Drugs for an old-fashioned malted or a great burger. (More in the restaurants guide) Admission is free. <https://www.irvingtexas.com/visitor-info/about-irving/heritage-district/>

Victoria Park. 3051 Northgate Blvd, Irving. 4 miles. Lovely park on a hill, with a pond and fountain at its base, a great amphitheater, and up on top a fun "Castle Kingdom" playground sure to make any kid smile, and equally sure to wear them out. Free admission. <https://www.cityofirving.org/Facilities/Facility/Details/Victoria-Park-100>

GOLF

Golf in the Irving/Dallas area is legendary, with the area being home to numerous tournament-quality courses. Many of them are near the ICC, but they are mostly private, members-only courses. However, we have some great municipal courses.

Luna Vista Golf course, 11223 Luna Road, Dallas. (Less than 1 miles from the ICC). This public golf course, built among the great Trinity River Forest, has been augmented with a wide variety of other trees, sports beautifully manicured Bermuda grass throughout all its 18 holes, and has full rental availability as well as a bar and grill. <http://www.lunavistagolf.com/>

Irving Golf Club (formerly Twin Wells Golf Course). (Less than 7 miles from the ICC). Currently closed for renovations. 2000 E Shady Grove Rd., Irving Check with the Parks and Rec Department for information. 972-721-2501.
