Ruth Paine House Museum

The Ruth Paine House Museum offers the very human account of the events related to President John F. Kennedy's assassination that occurred in this small, suburban home. Ruth Paine befriended Marina Oswald and through an act of kindness invited her to stay in her home. This brought Lee Oswald into her life and home which, in the blink of an eye, changed the lives of those in the home forever. The house has been restored to its 1963 look so that visitors will feel like they have stepped into the house as it was on that day in 1963. Tour Times: Tuesday to Saturday 10 am, noon, 2 pm and 4 pm. Reservation must be made online. A tour takes approximately 1½ hours. For info on student tours contact 972-721-3729. Explore the Tastes of Texas

When folks think of Texas and food, first thoughts might turn to chuck wagons and chili on the open range. And while we take immense pride in our native cuisine, by no means does it begin to cover the full extent of Metroplex dining. The Irving area offers a wide selection of ethnic dining, along with theme restaurants that provide as much show as they do dinner, and plenty of places for hometown favorites and comfort food in between.

Spouse/Guest Itineraries

Truly Texas

No matter what your vision of Texas is, you'll find more than meets the eye with this unique itinerary – from trail rides and cattle drives to Western art and campfire cooking – it's everything you want Texas to be! Our itineraries are flexible and can easily be packaged to suit your particular needs, interests or days of the week.

Circle R Ranch

Sixth Floor Museum

Billy Bob's

Grapevine Mills

Day 1

Your day starts at the spectacular Mustangs of Las Colinas, the world's largest equestrian sculpture. After a group picture in front of this majestic backdrop, you'll head to lunch at the Cellar Restaurant and Bar on the Mandalay Canal. Next, it's time for a look at a different kind of cowboy with a tour of AT&T Stadium, home of the Dallas Cowboys. With seating for 80,000, a retractable roof and a construction cost of over $1 billion, this incredible sports landmark is one of the most expensive sports venues in the world! There'll also be plenty of time to shop the largest selection of Cowboys memorabilia at the Dallas Cowboys Pro Shop. Finish the day with a serenade at sunset from a singing cowboy as your group enjoys hayrides, horseback riding and a campfire cookout at Circle R Ranch.

Day 2

Today starts with a hearty breakfast at the Mama's Daughters' Diner, then into downtown Dallas for a close-up look at Texas history. The Sixth Floor Museum offers the permanent educational exhibition of the life, death and legacy of President John F. Kennedy and features nearly 400 historic photographs and artifacts. En route to the Perot Museum of Nature and Science, there's time for a quick photo opportunity at Pioneer Plaza, a sculpture re-creation of an Old West cattle drive. Shoppers will enjoy the next stop at Neiman Marcus flagship store. Dallas Heritage Village is the next attraction, with 37 restored historic homes, buildings and shops providing a step back to the 19th century. Then it's back to your hotel for a break before heading out to dinner at Cool River Cafe or The Ranch, two of the area's best places for local flavor and live music!

Day 3

Head west today for a mix of Texas fun in Fort Worth! Enjoy breakfast in the unique setting of the Fort Worth Zoo's Texas Wild! Exhibit. Then it's off to the Amon Carter Museum and the Sid Richardson Collection of Western Art, to explore a different sort of cowboy culture. Lunch at the legendary Joe T. Garcia's will give everyone a taste of the spicy side of Texas. Then spend the afternoon wandering the shops of the Stockyards National Historic District, before line-dancing lessons at Billy Bob's. Don't forget to catch the daily cattle drive to and from the Stockyards. Dinner will be at the Cattlemen's Restaurant, and spend the evening afterwards exploring the Stockyards nightlife, including a rodeo.

Day 4

You might think only of Country and Western music when you think of Texas, but we've got a lot more too. And there's no better way to enjoy it than a brunch at one of Irving's premier hotels or restaurants before you head home. If your day allows more time, you might consider a Winemaker's Brunch at the Delaney Vineyards, or spend the afternoon shopping at the Texas-sized Grapevine Mills Outlet Mall offering Texas-sized values and more than 2 million square feet of "shoppertainment!"

Shop 'til You Drop

We brag about how everything is bigger in Texas, but a shopping itinerary through Dallas/Fort Worth really proves the point! Whether you prefer tracking down bargains, reveling in haute couture or just shopping until you drop, Irving makes it easy for you to do it all. We can also recommend local shopping experts to serve as your tour guides, to give your groups a truly VIP experience.

Downtown Antique Stores

Stockyards Station

Galleria

NorthPark Center

Day 1

We'll start at the biggest of them all, giving you all day to enjoy Grapevine Mills Outlet Mall. With more than 2 million square feet of "shoppertainment," your guests can enjoy familiar names such as Saks Fifth Avenue OFF 5th, Neiman Marcus Last Call clearance center, outlets for Nine West, Ann Taylor, Old Navy, Gap, Horchow and more. Don't miss LEGOLAND Discovery Center or SEA LIFE Grapevine Aquarium! Grapevine Mills features a 30-screen movie theater and a real old-time carousel, plus restaurants such as Rainforest Cafe, Corner Bakery and Chili's Too. You can also get your Texas shopping fix at places like Texas Treasures. Save some time to include Bass Pro Shops Outdoor World, and antique shopping in downtown Grapevine and Irving.

Day 2

Now that you're warmed up, it's time to take on Irving and North East Malls, with anchors like Dillard's, JCPenney, Macy's, Nordstrom and much more. Southlake

Town Square is your next stop for leisurely paced boutique shopping. Then it's westward for a visit to Stockyards Station in Fort Worth's Stockyards Historic District, with shops featuring everything from antiques to Western wear, including Indian jewelry, Texas wines, leather goods, and arts and crafts.

Day 3

Start the day at the spectacular Dallas Galleria, with four levels of shopping featuring Macy's, Tiffany & Co., Kenneth Cole, Gucci, Louis Vuitton and more. For more high-fashion couture boutiques to keep you in great style, head over to Highland Park Village and the Crescent Court Shops. Then break away to the value side with a quick visit to the Sam Moon Trading.

Day 4

Today, you'll start your shopping exploration in the Deep Ellum Arts District with its Greenwich Village ambiance. Then on to NorthPark Center which offers more than 160 specialty stores and restaurants, including Neiman Marcus, Burberry and Nordstrom. There's also a unique display of art, including work by Andy Warhol, courtesy of the private collection of Raymond and Patsy Nasher.

Spouse/Guest Itineraries

Arts and Culture

With more than 100 live performances occurring nightly throughout the Dallas/Fort Worth area, it's easy to find something for everyone – and hard to fit it all in! This sample itinerary is just to get you started, with galleries and museums during the day, and elegant, unique dinners and a wide range of performances at night.

National Scouting Museum

Dallas Arboretum

Kimbell Art Museum

Grapevine Vineyards

Day 1

Start your afternoon at the spectacular Mustangs of Las Colinas, the world's largest equestrian sculpture and a great backdrop for a souvenir group picture. Then you're off to the Irving Arts Center for a leisurely tour of its galleries and sculpture garden. Stop by the National Scouting Museum to visit the featured Norman Rockwell art gallery. A weather-friendly day also means a good time to explore the Jaycee Park Center for the Arts and its beautiful gardens. Dinner is at Via Real, followed by a performance at one of the Irving Arts Center's theaters.

Day 2

The Dallas Arboretum is always in bloom, and mornings are a perfect time to enjoy its scenery. Then you're off to downtown Dallas for an up-close look at the cattle drive captured in sculpture at Pioneer Plaza. For a unique art collection, you'll head over to the Nasher Sculpture Center, and lunch at Avanti Restaurant at FountainPlace makes for a great break.

The Dallas Museum of Art is the next stop, and then it's a trolley ride to McKinney Avenue for antique shopping and gallery strolling. Dinner is a dine-around on the avenue, capped by an evening performance at either the Meyerson, Majestic, Wyly, Winspear or Fair Park Music Hall theaters.

Day 3

"West" is the theme of the day, with your first stop at the Sid Richardson Museum's collection of Western art. Fort Worth's Kimbell Art Museum also offers a spectacular collection of art and a great lunch at its buffet. The Amon Carter Museum is next, and then the Modern Art Museum, the oldest art museum in Texas and one of the oldest museums in the Western United States. Dinner is in Fort Worth's downtown Sundance Square, followed by a show at Casa Mañana or the Bass Performance Hall.

Day 4

Your morning starts with the Grapevine Art Walk, including a visit to the unique Grapevine Heritage Center. A tour of Grapevine's wineries is next, with stops at tasting rooms and vineyards included. Enjoy a casual dinner at local favorites like Esparza's or Willhoite's, then catch a performance at the Grapevine Opry.

Student Fun

Looking for ways to entertain students of all ages? Look no further than Dallas/Fort Worth, and be sure to make Irving your “homeroom.” There are theme parks and restaurants, zoos and sports, and even a little education worked in. Spend a day or a week, or somewhere in between – whichever best suits your students’ interests.

Six Flags Over Texas

Sundance Square

Fossil Rim Wildlife Center

Day 1

Your day starts at the spectacular Mustangs of Las Colinas, the world’s largest equestrian sculpture and a great backdrop for a group picture. Stop in next at the National Scouting Museum for an up-close and hands-on look at the incredible history of scouting. Spend the rest of the day at Grapevine Mills, the largest value retail mall in the Southwest, which features fun venues such as Legoland Discovery Center and SEA LIFE Aquarium. Afterwards, grab dinner at places like Rainforest Cafe and Uncle Buck’s Steakhouse.

Day 2

The day starts at the Palace of Wax/Ripley’s Believe It Or Not!, with over 225 lifelike figures from Hollywood, history, religion and fantasy, plus a unique collection of oddities from around the world. Next, it’s on to Globe Life Park in Arlington, home of Major League Baseball’s Texas Rangers. Next stop is Six Flags Over Texas, where you’ll spend the rest of the day on over 100 rides, shows and attractions, including Batman the Ride, Superman Tower of Power and more!

Day 3

Head west this morning and start your day with breakfast and tour at the Fort Worth Zoo. Mosey on over to the Stockyards Historic District next, where you can catch a glimpse of some animals on the loose, as the daily cattle drive makes its way through town. Lunch is at famed Tex-Mex favorite Joe T.Garcia’s, then it’s off to Sundance Square for a peek at a mural of the Chisholm Trail and backstage at the Bass Performance Hall. The Cultural District is next, with stops at the Fort Worth Museum of Science and History and the Omni Theater. Nighttime is capped off by a visit to Pawnee Bill’s Wild West Show at Cowtown Coliseum.

Day 4

History and pop culture meet today, as you start with a tour of Dallas, including a visit to Pioneer Plaza’s cattle drive sculpture, Old City Park’s recreated village and renowned Dealey Plaza. After a tour at the Sixth Floor Museum, located in the former Texas School Book Depository Building, you’ll move on to lunch at the Hard Rock Cafe. It’s fun and games for the afternoon with either thrills at SpeedZone Dallas, chills at Six Flags over Texas or fun in the sun at Hurricane Harbor. Then a step back in time for a dinner of jousting and jesting at Medieval Times.

Day 5

If your next stop after Dallas and Fort Worth takes you south on I-35, you’ll want to make time for at least a 3-hour stop at the Fossil Rim Wildlife Center in Glen Rose, a 1,500-acre wildlife sanctuary featuring more than 60 species. While you’re in the neighborhood, don’t miss out on the Dinosaur Valley State Park, where dinosaur tracks aging nearly 100 million years have been discovered.
